Wet Sept. Puts Rainfall Ahead For Year

High School Homecoming Set For 27th.

Friday, September 27, is the big day for the students and alumni of Appomattox High School. The occasion is the annual homecoming.

The day will start off with a parade, scheduled for 2:00 P. M. At 8:00 P. M., Appomattox High School's Blue Hornet football team will play Virginia Episcopal School in a football game at the town park. During the half time intermission at the game, there will be the crowning of the King and Queen from the Senior Class and from the Elementary School. After the game there will be a dance in the high school cafeteria for the students and the alumni. Music will be furnished by The Southerners. All alumni are invited to attend.

Class Offered For Doctorate

Something new in hte field of education in this immediate area will be offered in Appomattox, when a "Doctorate Seminar" will begin here on September 21 at Appomattox High School. Dr. Earl R. Boggs, Dean of Longwood College, Farmville, will conduct the Seminar, and those with Master's Degrees in the Lynchburg - Farmville area, seeking credits towards a Doctor's Degree in Education, will attend the classes here over a 12 week period. The classes will be held at A. H. S. for 4 hours on alternate Saturdays. It is understood that at perhaps three Appomattox County teachers, including Principal Kenneth Christopher, will take this seminar, with others coming from Lynchburg, Campbell and Prince Edward.

To Sponsor Art Class

The Art Department of the Woman's Club of Appomattox is happy to announce that they will again sponsor an Art Class, under the direction of Hal McIntosh, director of the Lynchburg Art Center. These classes are open to anyone in the community : teresed in learning to paint: teenagers, beginners, adults and advanced students are invited to join. Those interested may register any time between now and October 11, at the Bank of Appomattox. Mrs. Wm. W. Burke will be glad to take name and registration fees. Classes will be held in the second floor of the old dormintory at the high school. The first class will be at 7:30 P. M., October 16.

Demonstration Club Schedule

Schedule of meetings of home demonstration clubs:

Monday, Sept. 23.- The Trinity Club will meet at 2 P. M. with Mrs. M. G. Martin, Jr. Mrs. Aubrey Moore will give the demonstration. Note change in day.

Wednesday, Sept. 24.- The Spout Spring club will meet at 2 P. M., with Mrs. R. B. McCormick. Mrs. McCormick and Mrs. McFadden will give the demonstration.

Thursday, Sept. 26.- The Oakgrove club will meet at 2 P. M. with Mrs. L. P. Petty.

BOND SALES LAG

Appomattox County is not doing so well in the purchase by its citizens of U. S. Savings Bonds this year. As of the first of the month, the county had reached only 41 per cent of its 1957 quota.

Sales in August in E and H bonds were $2,643.75. This made the total for the year $45,333.10, or 41 per cent of the county quota for 1957 of $110,000.

Subscription rate: $2.00 a year; payable in advance.

A. H. S. Romps To Opening Win Now Faces Randolph-Henry

The Appomattox High School Blue Hornets downed Blackstone High School by a score of 58 to 0 in a game played here last Friday night. It was the season opener.

Scoring touchdowns for the Blue Hornets were: Dan Coleman, with two; Ronnie Mann, two; Randy Almond, one; Raymond Massie, one; Leon Edmunds, one; Freddie Mitchell, one, and Arnold Whitehead, one.

The A. H. S. team looked very good on offense and also on defense as they handily downed an outmanned Blackstone team. On defense, Joey George, Dennis Drinkard, Charles Crawley, Richard Robinson, Terrell Martin, Toots Carter, and Palmer Moore stood out. All on the team looked pretty good for a first game of the season, but Coach Gordon Bragg warned that tough games are ahead and that the team will have to improve on offensive blocking.

The Blue Hornets will meet a strong and always tough Randolph-Henry High School team here Friday night, at 8:00 o'clock. The Randolph-Henry team downed Parkview last week by a score of 28 to 0. They will show a heavy backfield, featuring a 205 pound fullback. The Randolph-Henry line is heavy, and Coach Bragg says his squard will have to be in top shape to win.

The Blackstone ame drew out a large crowd and it is hoped than an even larger crowd will come out tomorrow night for the game.

Associational Meeting

The Woman's Missionary Union of the James River Baptist Association will have an associational conference at the C & O Baptist Church at Glasstone on September 24.

The theme of the conference will be "To Them He Gave Power."

PAMPLIN P.-T. A.

An executive committee meeting of the Pamplin Parent - Teacher Association was held in the school library Tuesday, Sept. 17.

The following committees were appointed: Program Committee, Membership Committee, Refreshment Committee, and Lunch Room Committee.

Projects for the year were discussed. Monday following the fourth Sunday of each month was selected as the regular meeting night for the P.-T. A.

DANCE CLASSES TO BE OFFERED

The Floyd Ward Schools of Dancing will offer instruction in Tap and Ballet, and Ballroom Dancing here this winter. Registration will be held at the Appomattox County Library on Tuesday, October 1, between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock. The classes will be held at the Appomattox H. S. cafeteria on Monday afternoons and evenings, beginning October 7.

The tuition is $7.00 per month, payable in advance. A special family rate is offered for two or more students in a family.

The Tap and Ballet classes will be taught by Jo Ann Beamer, who has studied dancing at the Floyd Ward Schools for nine years, and was awarded her teaching certificate in May, 1957. These classes will be divided into three groups, the Pre-School class for children between the age of 4 and 6; the Primary class for children 6 through 8; and the Advance class for those 9 years and older.

Mr. Tony Tucker, of Lynchburg, will teach the Ballroom dancing classes. They will also be divided into three classes: Elementary School pupils; high school pupils, and adults. These classes are for beginners and advance students.

If additional information is desired, contact Jo Ann Beamer, or Mrs. Joel W. Flood.

The conference will begin at 10 A. M., and adjourn at 3 P. M.

Bob Richards, pole vaulter, enters pro ranks.

Cecil B. DeMille says he expects "The Ten Commandments" to gross $20,000,000 net by the end of this year.

Initiation of New DO Club Members

John Ivey Holland, alumnus of the Distributive Education Club, initiated the new members of the Appomattox Chapter of the Distributive Education Clubs of America in a very impressive ceremony during an assembly program Friday at Appomattox High School. John Ivey told the new members the eight fold purposes of the Distributive Education Club.

Following the pledge by the initiates, all lights were lowered with the exception of a spotlight centered on the emblem of the Distributive Education Club. Virginia Rush, Hilda Woody, Betty Tillery, Terry Phelps, David Almond and Donald Ferguson explained the diamond shaped emblem with a wrapped package in center.

When the stagelights were raised, John Ivey told the new members they were privileged to wear the national insignia of the Distributive Education Clubs of America. He pointed out that the DECA emblem is worn by over 20,000 distributive education students throughout the United States.

John Ivey then installed the new officers by explaining to each his or her duties and then issuing the pledge of each office. Officers for the coming year are:

President, Virginia Rush
Vice-president, Hilda Woody
Secretary, Betty Tillery
Treasurer, Terry Phelps
Editor - promotion manager, David Almond
Historian, Donald Ferguson.

Other new members include J. C. Davis, Dennis Drinkard, Clyde Nash, and Robert Burge. Mrs. Joan Smith sponsors the Distributive Education Club.

OAKVILLE P.-T. A.

"Today's Youth, Tomorrow's Leaders," the program theme for the this P.-T. A. year at the Oakville Elementary School, was emphasized by Keith B. Whitehead, school principal, as he spoke to the group Tuesday night. He stressed the importance of the home, the church, and the school co-operating together, and closed his remarks by saying how well we have met the responsibility that is ours will be seen in the lives of the adults of tomorrow—the youth of today.

The president, Curry Harvey, presided over the business meeting, the first meeting of this school year. He appointed the following people to serve on the various standing committees for this year:

The Red Cross urges families to prepare for Asian flu.

Appomattox has already had more rainfall thus far in 1957, than in the entire 12 months of 1956. The mark for all of 1956 was 36.07 inches, and the heavy rain early today shot the 1957 total to 36.17 inches, according to an early morning talley by W. S. Taylor, local recorder for the Wenther Bureau.

The rainfall here during the past 24 hours was 1.13 inches, as of 7 A. M.

Thus far in September, there has been rainfall 12 of the 19 days.

The September total of now 6.60 inches, to make the month the top wet month of 1957.

Here, according to Mr. Taylor, is a run-down on rainfall here during 1957:

January: 2.88 inches, mostly general rains.

February: 4.10 inches, mostly general rains.

March: 2.23 inches. The first 15 days were dry.

April: 5.17. All in the first part of the month. Spotty. Little rain after the 10th.

May: 2.27, inches. Only two general rains, all in same week. Set up a dry spring.

June: 5.77 inches. Several general rains. 11 dry days in month.

July: 3.60 inches. All after the 15th. Eary half of the month completely dry.

August: 3.55 inches. Two good rains, spread over 3 days. Rest of month mostly dry.

September: so far, 6.60 inches, with rains 12 of first 19 days. Over 4 inches since Saturday.

Mr. Taylor records the rainfall at his home, just out of Appomattox. He sends regular reports to the U. S. Weather Bureau.

Continues Clean-Up

To the Citizens of the Town of Appomattox:

I want to take this opportunity to thank everyone who has helped in the cleaning of Church Street. The State Highway Department has been most cooperative and I would like for them to know that their efforts are greatly appreciated. Our Town Manager and the Town employees have worked most diligently in this respect also, and I want to thank them.

For the coming week, let us all concentrate and put our efforts on Main Street and Court Street from the intersection of Main and Church in front of the drug store up by the Court House to the intersection of Court Street and Route 460.

Your continued assistance and cooperation will be greatly appreciated and long remembered by everyone.

Sincerely,
C. T. Moses, Jr., Mayor
